Turtle Shell Shield

(shield)

This green mottled shield is shaped from the shell of a large turtle. The shell was treated by a special process so it doesn't crack as easily as a shell would.

- ATL 1, 3: MW small shield (Value 175 gp)
- ATL 5, 7: +1 small shield (Value 1,175 gp)

Base item: MW Treated turtle shell light shield. (Shield bonus +1, Armor Check Penalty 0, Arcane spell failure 5%, Weight 5 lb., Value 175 gp)

In addition, the turtle shell is buoyant, so when wielded in water, the shield weighs half as much.

TAKING THE PLUNGE

Whalebone Crossbow

This light crossbow was made with polished whalebone and coral pieces as well as polished whale sinew for the strings.

The crossbow functions as a masterwork light crossbow, except it cannot be warped by being in water since it has no wooden parts.

Wooden and steel bolts can be fired from this weapon, but normal penalties apply.

Bolts of Swimming

These polished bolts are made of treated coral, like most of the undersea equipment.

The bolts are designed to be fired underwater. Their shape and design reduces the penalty for firing weapons underwater to -1 (as opposed to -2).

In addition, the range increment of the crossbow is only halved when shooting these bolts.
