Being Right Doesn't Hurt Any Less

Your actions in thwarting the plans of Isador's daughter have attracted the attention of Amthydor's criminal element. The organized criminal element will treat you as an enemy and will direct their attacks towards you unless other party members have this cert as well. The villains will gain a +1 bonus to hit you due to their hatred of you. If you also has the cert "Notice of Those Who Shall Not Be Named" from "In the Eyes Of A child" the villains will treat you as a favored enemy, and will gain a +2 bonus to attack and damage rolls against you. You must show this cert to the judge when you sit down to play an LSJ event. This cert expires after one year real time.

When One Door Closes, It Can Be Reopened

Your actions in thwarting the plans of Isador's daughter have attracted the attention of the right people. When you fail a Diplomacy or Intimidate skill check you immediately gain a +20 bonus to that attempt. Note that this will not gain you information in a module that is not available to be learned. In simple terms if the modules doesn't allow for information to be learned by either diplomacy or intimidate checks, then you cannot use it to do so in that module. You must show this cert to the judge when you sit down to play and he/she will let you know if you can use the cert for a diplomacy or intimidate check. If not, then you can't use the cert to do so in that module. The number of times that you may use this cert depends on your level:
